Q29 Now, let me read you two different proposals for dealing with the federal deficit. For each one, please tell me How acceptable this would be for you using a scale of 1 to 5, where 1 is not acceptable at all and 5 is very acceptable. Of course you can choose any number from 1 to 5.

	Very Acceptable Rating			Not Acceptable Rating		Cannot Rate
	5	4	3	2	1
This proposal would raise income taxes on families earning over $250,000, and raise taxes on multinational corporations. This proposal would also reduce spending on national defense weapons systems, and pay hospitals and doctors less for treatments for Medicare and Medicaid patients.	19	17	22	14	26	2
This proposal would favor avoiding tax increases as much as possible, and rely primarily on cutting spending. This proposal would also cut spending on benefit programs like Medicare and Medicaid as well as federal aid to city and state governments for programs in the areas of education and transportation.	14	11	25	17	33	-

Q30 Now, if there were a measure on the ballot that stated in order for the federal budget to be balanced, there would be cuts in every single program including national defense, education, border control, assistance for the elderly and disabled, and environmental protection—would you vote for or against such a measure?
